What type of crimes may be taking place?

- Commercial Sexual Exploitation
Criminals bringing young people, women, or men to your premises who have been forced into selling sex. This is often arranged online and many (but not all) victims are from overseas.
- Internet grooming
Adults bringing young girls or boys who they have groomed online to your property to have sex.
- Countylines
Criminals use hotels, guest houses, caravan parks or rental properties as a base to distribute drugs or recruit local vulnerable young people to act as couriers and set up a County Lines operation. In some cases this can lead to child sexual exploitation.
