

Volunteer Force Crimestoppers Coach Role

Volunteer Force Crimestoppers Coach Role

At Crimestoppers, we believe that it is people who stop crime.

Each and every one of us can play a part. Together, we can be safer from crime. Our volunteers play a vital role for our charity.

Our volunteers connect people everywhere with the belief they can stop crime. Volunteers usually work as part of a local team, in a role that suits your skills and/ or experiences.

Role Purpose:

The role of the Force Crimestoppers Coach volunteer is to attend Lincolnshire Police Headquarters and Stations on required input days, to showcase and present information about Crimestoppers, how the service works and how the force can make the best use of our resources available to them.

The role will empower Force officers and staff to contemplate Crimestoppers in each aspect of their role and ensure the service is considered to help and support their investigations, as well as close the loop on the process around the information received in to Force and the completion of feedback back into Crimestoppers to demonstrate the quality of information being received from the community.

Role:

- Attending officers and staff input and professional development days.
- Delivering presentations to Force officers and staff about Crimestoppers.
- Showcase the resources available to the force.
- Highlight the benefit of Crimestoppers information and the requirement to complete feedback on each piece of intelligence actioned.
- Link any Police Officer or staff in with the Regional Manager for continued work..
- Explore and develop partnership working with other external agencies
